

DOMAINE DIDIER POITEVIN

DIDIER POITEVIN

THE ESTATE

Created in 1990, Domaine Didier POITEVIN is set on the heights above the lovely little village of Saint-Amour, .

This is at the very northern end of the Beaujolais region and just to the south of Burgundy. From here, you can enjoy magnificent panoramic views of the vineyards, the Saône plain and the Alps.

Today, the estate covers 10 hectares of vineyards that are mainly shared between two Crus.

OUR WINES

appellations on offer:

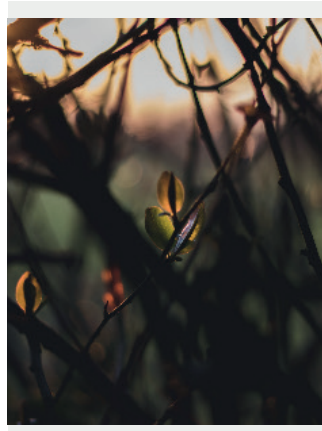

/ Saint-Amour

/ Saint-Véran

ENVIRONMENT

Didier Poitevin aims to develop an approach to tending that respects the environment.

To do this he uses integrated, eco-friendly techniques, plants sodded bands in plots suited to it and uses gentle mechanical tilling.

KNOW-HOW

Planted on the very best terroirs of the appellation area, our Saint-Amour vines are south and southeast facing with a really wide variety different terroirs. Some are clay and pink granite, others are stonier or more sandy. Our Saint-Véran vineyards boast and excellent position, with the vines' roots pushing down into a soil that tends towards limestone-clay.
