

La Gamme Beaujolaise presents

DOMAINE DU POURPRE

BERNARD MEZIAT

THE ESTATE

A vinegrower-winemaker with a passion for his profession in the heart of the village of Chénas in the Beaujolais region.

This family estate, covering 16 hectares, has been handed down over five generations.

The vineyard that Bernard Meziat stewards is planted with vines that are around 50 years old, on sandy and clayey slopes.

OUR WINES

appellations on offer:

/ Moulin-à-Vent

/ Chénas

ENVIRONMENT

The vines are tended in true respect for tradition.

With complete integrated control of the plant health products used, ever mindful of the environment.

KNOW-HOW

Harvesting is only ever manual, and with great care.

This means that the resulting wines are high quality and retain the typical personalities of each terroir the grapes came from.
